

PUBLIC LEADER

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 1896.

ONE CENT.

THE SILVER CASH FINDER.

The winkler whistled its way through the dark. As the spiderwebbeeked a sent from afar. The snickerer sneaked on the snout of a deer. The snickerer snickered through thick and thin. In quest of the snickerer, rustling bayonet. The snickerer snickered through thick and thin. And slipped a spike at the snickerer, bell boat.

The snickerer winkled a whin at the moon. As the snickerer joined in the chorus of wrath. White handkerchiefs lifted the joy of the moon. And the snickerer winkled the gabby the dark aftermath.

But in spite of this argument, atone as it is. And in spite of the boomlet late brought about. The symptoms all point to an argenteo baz. It appears that free silverism about petered out.

The City Council of Louisville has begun a war on poolrooms by passing an ordinance making the license $5,000 a year. There are now four poolrooms in the city.

On a warrant issued from the office of Squire Brainerd, Constable Dawson arrested Mr. Hiram T. Warder on the charge of shooting John Bringer at Orangeburg. He gave bond for $300 for his appearance before the "Squire on the 23d inst., at which time Mr. Bringer thinks he will be able to attend.

Colonel A. D. Huff—well known in this city as "Pap" Huff—left Saturday at Owensville, aged 68. He was the oldest bicyclist in the state, and had recently returned from a trip to Yellowstone Park on his wheel. He was unmarried and leaves a large estate.

Protracted services begin in the Central Presbyterian Church to night. Preaching by the Rev. John G. Anderson. Prayer and song service at 6:30 p. m. All Christians are invited to cooperate with us in this special effort for the furtherance of Christ's kingdom.

Joshua D. Mathis, proprietor of the Mathis house at Portsmouth, and until recently a member of the Democratic County Central Committee, pleaded guilty to the charge of burglarizing the Star Firebrick Company's store and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

It seems that the C. and O. people want to parallel the N. and W. from the Ohio river to Columbus for the purpose of getting a shorter route to the lakes and the Northwest. Then what's the matter with scotching across the river at Maysville and plowing through several rock canyons to Columbus?

The House passed a resolution several days ago appointing a committee to lay the different Ministers of Frankfort to attend the opening of the House each day and offer prayers. Some of the members of the committee on account of A. P. A. sympathies refused to unite in a request upon Father Mayor, and for the first time in years no Priest will pray at the openings during the session.

FIRE AT SARDIS.

The Residence of James Grigsby, Jr., burned this morning.

About 4:30 this morning fire destroyed the home of Mr. James Grigsby, Jr., at Sardis.

How the flames started is not fully known, but it is thought to have been from a defective flue.

The work of destruction was so rapid that comparatively little of the household goods was saved.

The total loss is placed at $8,000. The house belonged to Colonel George W. Dye, Mr. Grigsby's father-in-law, and was insured for $11,000.

Buck Ganley, colored, who stole a horse and rode it out from Charles Poe at Germantown, was arrested at Lexington. He had sold the horse and equipments at Rockspring for $5, although $150 would have been cheap enough. He fessed up when he was arrested.

THIRTY DAYS IN JAIL.

That's What Judge Barr Gave Frank Prater Saturday.

Who doesn't know Frank Prater, The enthusiastic County Attorney and political hustler of Grayson, Ky. arker county?

Well, some time ago Frank tried a flimsy argument on Commissioner Gregory, in order to change his views about a point of law.

The Commissioner submitted the matter to Judge Barr of the United States District Court at Frankfort, and Saturday the Judge sentenced Mr. Prater to thirty days in jail for obstructing justice.

Since the City Council of Chicago imposed a license of $500 on grocers who sell liquor it is believed that a large number of the grocery stores that have been selling liquor will abandon the trade.

An unusually large congregation was present at the M. E. Church, South, yesterday, and every one was delighted by the singing of Miss Nellie Hume of Louisville. It is thought she will become a resident of Maysville, and that she will sing at this church regularly.

A watch is the most acceptable gift you can make a boy. It will encourage him to punctuality at school and elsewhere. A boy is more apt to be on time when he knows what time is. We show a splendid variety of Sterling Silver Watches for boys. Cues are of some designs as gold ones. All warranted.

"HOB" BRUNER IN HOC.

His Red Break in This City Followed Up at Gallipolis.

The Lebanonville Chief of Police Officer and his force an apology; and the same obligation is due from many others.

For our part, it is hereby most humbly tendered.

About fifteen months since, Frank Bruner, better known as the "Hobo," swooped down on Maysville, and soon had a place in the local ball team.

During the winter of 1894-5 he remained in the city, but as his means of support were questionable he was arrested by the police on a charge of vagrancy.

Bruner was well dressed, and to all appearances well behaved.

Thinking the fellow was "persecuted" a number of citizens, including the writer, took issue with the officers, and sympathy for the accused secured his acquittal.

Recent developments, however, prove that the officers were not mistaken in his character.

It is now known that he accomplished the feat of at least one young lady in this city, and it will not be pleasant saying for him should he encounter her father.

The rest is told in the following telegram.

GALLIPOLIS, O., January 10th.—Indictments were found by the Grand Jury against Frank P. Bruner the ballplayer and Dr. L. C. Bean, a prominent physician and surgeon at the United States Marine Hospital, charged with a criminal operation upon the person of Miss Emma Walker, an only daughter of prominent people. She lingered at the point of death several weeks. It is said, as a result of the operation.

Several more parties of prominence are alleged to be implicated in the case. Bruner and Miss Walker were married here yesterday. Bruner and Bean have been released on $1,000 bonds.

Not a few who know that Mr. Robert Kowalski of Holland, Va., has to say he will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to get to work, and the second bottle effected a cure. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

Winsome Charles A. Gardner, the most captivating of all singing comedians, will appear at the Washington Opera house tonight in his latest success, "The Prize Winner." The play has everywhere been hailed by critics and public with genuine delight. It is pure but whimsical and interesting. It graphically depicts the struggle of a heroic German tuner, whose heroism and manliness of purpose aid him in overcoming many obstacles. The part of the prize winner is a course portrayed by Mr. Gardner, and is said to be his most praiseworthy characterization, offering him ample scope to display his well-known versatility as an actor and comedian and to introduce those songs which have made him famous. Foremost amongst the new songs which he will sing is that charming song "Apple Blossoms," which has proven a worthy successor to the ever favorite "Lilacs." Special mention might also be made of "Goodnight," "The Turner's Triumph," "The German Flower Girl," "A Butterfly Song" and "Wedding Bells." The supporting company is composed of exceptional merit, and the best Mr. Gardner has ever surrounded himself with—includes the celebrated Russian children and a troupe of Tyrolean singers and dancers, who will make their first American appearance with Mr. Gardner.

ABUSING THE PRIFEXES.

The "Professor" Business Should Be Included With "Honorable."

"Sayward," in writing from Washington to The Louisville Times, says of a common nuisance:

Plain people are apt to smile at the reckless and indiscriminate use of the word "Hon." about both wings of the Capitol; it is stuck up everywhere and stares you in the face everywhere. It is pasted on the desks of members. It is above the pass on which they hang their coats and hats in the cloakrooms.

A member of a committee room cannot send a box of envelopes to the room of some Stiggins without addressing it to the "Hon." Gustavus Adolphus Stiggins, Hamilton House, City. I recall that when I was in charge of the seal room, the last Congress, I sealed a package for Hon. Stiggins, and he sat down and wrote the above address and then the package was carried down by the Riding Page and was awaiting his distinguished presence when he got to the Hamilton history that evening.

John A. Logan was a General, and a distinguished one, but after the war he became the "Hon." Logan as long as he was in Congress. Governor Curran was the famous war Governor of Pennsylvania, but when he was elected to Congress he was no longer Governor, but "Hon." Judge Powers of Vermont, an ornament to the bench, is now an "Hon." member of the U. S. Senate.

It is all well enough to be honorable, but who the devil wants it stuck under his nose at every turn and corner? Hence Conkling would not permit it.

He asked the word from the proof of the first speech he delivered in Congress and there were standing orders at the printing office not to insert it behind his name. And it was excellent taste, too.

The sick man knocking at the door of health gets in if he knocks the right way, and stays out if he doesn't. There are thousands of people who knock at the door of health, but who never get in.

Well, do what ever you will. If you do not put your digestion in good order, and make your blood in true condition, you will not get well. Rich, pure blood is the only thing that can bring perfect health. Consumption is a disease of the blood. A large part of all diseases are traceable directly to impurities in the blood, and can be cured by eliminating them with Dr. Williams' Golden Medical Discovery. The first thing it does is to put the whole digestive system into perfect order. It stimulates the appetite, and causes a copious secretion of the digestive fluids and promotes assimilation. It searches out disease germs wherever they are, and drives them out of the system. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has been used with unvarying success for over 30 years.

THE TIE BROKEN.

Legislator Wilson Dies, and the Republican New Year's Day.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 13.—Representative Isaac Wilson, of Nelson county, died Saturday morning at 5 o'clock, and the party deadlock in the assembly was broken.

Mr. Wilson was a democrat and had been brought here several times, always in a dying condition. His greatest desire was to live long enough to vote for Senator Blackburn, but the speaker died before he could do so.

Mr. Wilson was too ill to make any move before his election, and it was well known at that time that he was afflicted with several years' trouble.

Last Wednesday at his request a magistrate called at his room and administered the oath of office to the already dying man, but he never was able to occupy the seat.

The house was in session only five minutes Saturday, adjourning as a mark of respect to the deceased and appointing the usual committee to attend the funeral.

SPEAKER BLANDFORD.

Delays Invite a Call for a Special Election in Nelson County.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 13.—The democrats in the legislature are torn up over Speaker Blandford's hesitancy in calling a special election in Nelson county to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Wilson.

They say the speaker promised to call a special election on Saturday for an election on January 21, which might be in time for his successor to vote for senator, but the speaker is deliberating Saturday night and says he has not determined when he will leave the writ.

Eight days' notice of the holding of the election is required and Wilson's successor will not be in the joint assembly and will not be elected Monday.

Owing to the failure to issue a writ of election, Wilson's successor can not be elected until January 24 or after. His successor will not be named in time to vote for Senator Blackburn.

Men say positively that they will refuse to go into the joint assembly Tuesday, January 21, on account of this, and will try by this means to break a quorum.

Shot as He Ran.

VERMILION, Ky., Jan. 13.—John Stobal shot and wounded James Coleman near Mortonsville. Both are colored. Coleman is 60 years old and is a native of Colorado. Stobal is a young man and is a native of Kentucky.

Stobal was in the habit of being unduly intimate with his young wife and meeting him on the way to work. Stobal instantly drew a pistol and as Coleman turned and ran shot him in the back the ball piercing his body. Stobal was captured in Vermilion and is now in jail. Coleman may get well.

Brother's Fall Quailed.

WEST LIBERTY, Ky., Jan. 11.—Tom, Frank and Will Hopkins, brothers, while at work in a mine, quarreled over the division of their work. Will, the youngest, aged 16, attacked Tom with a pitch fork. Tom took the mine away from Will and stabbed him six times with a knife. The injured boy is dying and officers are on the track of the kidnappers who fled immediately after the cutting. It is thought he has gone to Texas, where he came from several weeks ago.

A Discrimination.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 13.—It was learned Sunday night that the committee appointed by the house of representatives to wait on the ministers of the Frankfort churches, had refused to open each day's session with prayer has determined not to invite the Catholic priest. This was brought about by the fact that the priest threatened to walk out of the house whenever the priest prayed. The senate will have no trouble as it has already invited all the ministers to open its sessions.

Four Boys' Serious Joke.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky., Jan. 13.—Four boys, by the name of the Hamilton family, on the southern railroad north of Lawrenceburg, had a narrow escape from sudden death in attempting to perpetrate a joke. They went to the town's edge to explode a stick of dynamite in a tree to make the inhabitants believe there was an earthquake. A premature detonation broke down the tree, knocking the quartet of jokers unconscious, but not fatally injuring them.

Hobson a Candidate.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 13.—Gen. E. H. Hobson, of Greensburg, senior vice president of the National Republican ex-grand commander of the department of Kentucky, announces his candidacy for delegate from the state-at-large to the national convention at St. Louis.

PAINES, Ky., Jan. 13.—W. A. Bacon's two-story frame residence on Main street, occupied by Jesse Berry as a boarding house, burned with entire contents Sunday morning at five o'clock. The cause of the fire is not known. It started in a barber shop, which was also burned.

Attorney Sent to Jail.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 13.—Judge Barr of the United States District Court, after afternoon session County Attorney Frank Prater, of Grayson, Ky., was sent to jail for obstructing justice. Prater's particular offense was an assault on Commissioner Gregory.

Mayor Try Deaconship.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 13.—Mayor Harry S. Tyler, who is very ill, can hardly survive Monday, and by the time he is out of bed he will be a member of the board of aldermen, an A. P. A. republican, will succeed him until the council selects his successor.

THE receipts of Uncle Sam's Treasury
for the first third of January have aggregated $9,930,857.25—rather greater than anticipated—while the expenditures have been $14,530,142.75, for the fiscal year of $20,000,000,000. As for the fiscal year of $20,000,000,000, it will be useful to Democrats who are looking forward to the time when their party will get another chance to run the country.

The chief factor in determining the condition of business is the Treasury.
If revenues were equal to expenditures and if the gold reserve were kept above the old $100,000,000 minimum trade of all sorts would be active, and there would be no unloading of American stocks by foreigners and no convulsion in the stock market. The bond sale will put the reserve on the right side of the $100,000,000 line, while the enactment of the Dingley Bill would abolish the Treasury deficits and keep the reserve intact.
Of course the bond sale is ascertained, but unhappily, the enactment of the revenue bill is not certain.

ARBITRATION.

A Simple Solution of the Venezuela Boundary Dispute.

Clause to Be Attached to the Behring
Sea Treaty Providing Arbitration

Of All Pending Questions Between the Two Countries by England—The British Embassy Will Have the Material Documents on Venezuela Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Mr. Henry Norman, the special commissioner of the London Daily Chronicle, calling to his paper before leaving Washington Sunday, says:

There is a simpler solution of the present difficulty and restoration of cordial relations between England and America than any I have suggested.
Why should not Lord Salisbury attach to the Behring sea arbitration treaty, which is about to be returned to the American government, a clause providing for the arbitration of all pending questions, and area of all future ones? Besides Venezuela and Canada there are the Alaska boundary, the eastern fisheries, and other questions causing discord. If he does this I am able to state that the administration will accept with pleasure the treaty so altered. This is a method of accomplishing everything with perfect honor and dignity to both parties.

Lord Salisbury would be wise to terminate the matter before Brazil determines arbitration of her end of the Schouburg line, thus adding a new and difficult complication.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—In an editorial Monday the Standard says that the communications is published relative to the attitude to Germany and the Transvaal and the publication of the papers on the Venezuela boundary is all authoritative. It adds:

Urged by friendly public opinion in the United States to place before the world as soon as may be the British case as regards the controversy with Venezuela, the cabinet on Saturday decided to respond to this amiable invitation by publishing the material documents in its possession bearing thereon. Of far more importance to the English people than the problems to be faced in South Africa or the relations of this country with any other power are its relations with the United States, and we gladly take the opportunity of bearing testimony to the magnanimous attitude of the American toward us at a moment when a community less generous thought apparently that a favorable opportunity had arisen for adopting toward us a tone of insult, if not of menace. Instead of taking advantage of the augmentation of our anxieties and the temporary multiplication of our events, the American, with a spirit that does him honor which is appreciated by his sympathizers, they have maintained an honorable, courteous reserve. That is conduct worthy of them, and it has not unnaturally inspired the English government with a desire to meet our kindliness across the Atlantic in a friendly spirit. Lord Salisbury, we are assured before, has not
not to wait for a meeting of parliament, but will publish as soon as they can be got ready all the documents in his possession bearing upon the disputed boundary between British Guiana and Venezuela. As we have said, the attitude of the press of the United States during the past week has materially influenced the prime minister's decision, just as it has quiesced the feeling of friendship entertained by Englishmen for those who speak their tongue and share their literature on the other side of the ocean. The maintenance of friendly relations with the United States must always be a consideration of the first importance for Great Britain, and it is to the American people with the absolute candor of deep seated cordiality.

The foregoing article is headed throughout and is evidently inspired by the government.

light it was found burned to the water's edge and the charred bodies of the couple found. A two-year-old child of the woman in some miraculous way escaped unhurt.
